SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The New Zealand Aid Programme (NZAP) offers scholarships to Grenadians, who are motivated to make a difference in their country's development.

Applications open in early 2018 for tertiary study beginning early 2019. Information for APPLICATION DATES is online.

PRIORITY AREA

Scholars who are interested in studying subjects that can improve the social and economic development of Grenada are required. Priority sectors that can help Grenada and that New Zealand has expertise in have been identified.

If you can show that your study is connected to the sector, you are more likely to be selected.

These are the priority sectors:

Renewable energy

- Solar, geothermal, hydro-electric and wind energy, energy engineering, renewable energy distribution systems, energy sector management/reform, including energy economics and financials
